

Doctoral CGDE Workshop: Call for Papers

Dear members of the CGDE network,

We are happy to announce that the fifth Doctoral CGDE Workshop will be organized by:

Friedrich Schiller University Jena
Faculty of Economics and Business Administration
Carl-Zeiss-Str. 3
07743 Jena

on

March 13th – March 14th, 2017

The workshop venue will be the "Rosensäle" (Fürstengraben 27, 07743 Jena).

For each paper, we devote 25 minutes for presentation, 10 minutes for a prepared discussion and 25 minutes for general discussion. The conference language will be English. There is no reimbursement for travel and accommodation expenses, though participants may be reimbursed by their home institutions. In the evening of March 13th, we plan to have an informal get-together to continue discussion with the CGDE network members (at your own expenses).

Please submit your paper (or extended abstract) until January 27th, 2017 to tina.wolf@uni-jena.de

The program is scheduled to be out on March 1st, 2017. Full papers shall be sent to the discussants no later than March 6th, 2017. Details will be provided on our website: <http://cgde.wifa.uni-leipzig.de>.

We would like to encourage PhD students and PostDocs in the CGDE network from all economic fields to submit their papers to this workshop. We also cordially invite all senior researchers to participate as discussants.

We look forward to seeing you in Jena.
