

CGDE Doctoral Workshop 2025: Call for Papers

Dear members of the CGDE network,

We invite you to submit papers to the 12th Doctoral CGDE Workshop to be held at

Leipzig University

March 6-7, 2025

The workshop will start around noon and will end the next day in the afternoon.

Each paper session will last 50 minutes, including the presentation, planned comments from a discussant, and a general discussion. On the evening of March 6, there will be an informal gathering at a local pub.

Please submit your paper (extended abstract) until January 31, 2025 to:
steger@wifa.uni-leipzig.de // e-mail subject: CGDE Workshop Leipzig 2025

The program will be communicated in the second half of February at:
<http://cgde.wifa.uni-leipzig.de>

All PhD students and Post-Docs in the network are encouraged to submit their papers. Senior researchers are also cordially invited to participate.

We look forward to seeing you in Leipzig,
